11. [redacted] Colgate Prentice, State Department, called to invite the Director to an evening chat with a group of administrative assistants on the Hill called the "Inner Circle." Prentice became a member of this group while working on the Hill. He also mentioned that he had worked closely with the Director in his capacity as special ambassador in charge of the CORDS program. I told him I would take the matter up with the Director and call him back. They would like to have the Director in June or July or after the August recess.
